INFORMATION
(Entry of Goods by Means of False Statements)

The United States Attorney for the District of Maryland charges that:

1. From in or about June 2021 until in or about December 2021, in the District of Maryland and elsewhere, the defendant,

AMAR SHABAZZ

did enter and induce into commerce in the United States imported merchandise, to wit: 636 fraudulent Covid-19 vaccine cards through at least three separate shipments from a supplier in China, by means of false and fraudulent declarations and papers and by means of false written statements, to wit: customs declaration forms falsely stating the shipments contained “stickers” and “Christmas decorations,” without reasonable cause to believe the truth of those statements.
